Most long distance trains and buses are fully booked during vacations, so book your seat well in advance.

Driving is enjoyable and relaxing because of great roads.

If public transport isn't your thing, get your own vehicle. It'll cut down your commute costs to a large extent. NH66 and NH13 pass through the city, connecting it to some of the major cities like Mangalore, Mumbai, Panjim and Shimoga.

Manipal and Udupi offer wide range of options for bike rental services like India Rides, Royal Brothers, Zoom, and Drivezy. Auto-rickshaws are easily available and can be used to travel within the city.

TRAVELLER'S TIP

In Manipal the auto rickshaw comes right up to your doorstep if you dial the auto rickshaw stand.

Railways

Konkan Railways links Udupi to the rest of the country.

The railway station in Udupi is just a few kilometers away from the main town. There are trains to Bangalore, Mumbai, Delhi and Ahmedabad regularly.

Air Travel

Mangalore International Airport is at Bajpe and is very convenient for frequent fliers.

The airport is only an hour's drive from Udupi city. It is well served by regular flights from all corners of the country and a few from abroad.

Udupi Utsav

It is a two-month long festival that takes place during the months of November and December in the Royal Garden Grounds. The expo represents the rich cultural ethnicity of the land by giving impetus to a variety of handicrafts. Cultural programmes, Carnatic music evenings, fast food stalls, amusement rides and exhibitions are the major attractions at this festival.

Paryaya Festival

It is celebrated in January. It is held every even year. During the festival the puja and administration of Krishna Matha is handed over from Swamiji of one of Ashta Matha to the Swamiji of another Ashta Matha.

Jalotsav

Every year Malpe Development Committee organizes a water sports festival during the summer months. During the festival a lot of water sports like surfing, kayaking, stand up paddle, speedboat, banana ride and parasailing can be enjoyed. Folklore performances and mass yoga are arranged.

Seafood festival

Being a part of coastal Karnataka, people in this region have the best access to a variety of exotic fishes. The seafood festival is a must visit event for the foodies to experience delicious delicacies made with locally sourced produce. It is usually held in the month of September.
